THEATER-BENEFIT OF MR. GEO. J. ARNOLD .-This evening, on the occasion of the complimentary benefit tendered to Mr. Geo. J. Arnold by the "Marion Rifles," will be enacted for the first time, the great American historical drama, in three acts, of "Putnam, the Iron Son of '76," preceded by the heautiful comedy of "The Day after the Wedding."

The occasion will he an interesting one. Miss Louise Wells will personate the character of Kate Putnam, and Mr. Arnold that of the Indian Chief. They will be ably sustained by the entire strength and talent of the company. The "Rifles" will he present in force, and in full nniform, and under their superintendence the theater will he handsomely decorated. We hope on this occasion to see the largest house of the season.

BEAUTIFUL PAINTINGS .- Mr. and Mrs. Lacey, who have ac quired an extended reputation in the principal cities of the West, are now in this city, where they intend to devote themselves for a season, to that peculiar department of art, in which they have attained much excellence. The paintings which they produce are in various styles and always heautiful. When we consider the facility with which they are executed, we cannot hut admire the skill of the artists. They propose to take under their care a number of pupils to whom, for a moderate compensation, they will impart this elegant and desirable accomplishment. Room over Hegan & Escott. je9 d8* The water pipes were extended along Green street yesterday up to Third, and out Third street towards Walnut. Fifty men were engaged at the work of excavating, laying the pipes and covering in, and made rapid progress, under the supervision of Alderman Beatty.

The workmen to lay the water pipes along Green street, in front of the Custom House vesterday, very ruthlessly tore up the pavement, or new gutter, that had just been laid at heavy axpense and two weeks lahor. Why were not he pipes laid a few days sooner? Or why not have deferred the pavement a few days later ?

We call the special attention of our readers to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale advertised for this morning, at his auction rooms. A large lot of very superior mahogany parlor and chamber furniture, and carpets, has been received, and will he included in the sale to-day. A pair of carriage horses and carriage, a spring wagon, and work horse, are advertised to be sold at this asle, with many other articles necessary to the comfort of families and housekeepers.

The strawberry season is about over, and raspberries are already quite abundant ln onr markets at $1 per gallon for red and 80 cents per gallon for common black. The long coninued dronth has seriously affected this favorite and delicious fruit, and while the berries will generally he inferior in size and quality, the season for them will be materially shortened.

Without going out of our own district to notice other gentlemen or candidates, we have only to say that we have more than once heard Col. Holt remark that his speech at the Lagrange Convention, was misrepresented by the Democrat. If we mistake not, Col. Holt also had his position upon the Territorial question corrected in the Paris Flag. And we publish a letter from a reliable correspondent this morning, who says that the Col. told him that the Telegraph had represented him. We doubt not that Col-Holt has spoken to others of this matter, but whether he has or not, we state the facts as they are: and while we desire no controversy upon this subject, we do not hesitate to say that Col Holt will not deny the truth of our statement .-We don't pretend to say what particular meaning Col. Shields, Miss Josie A. Young and Miss Lide H. Day, members of the ociety. We have read with much pleasure several articles in these numbers thath editorials and contributions, which speak favorably for the talents and high attainments of the writers. It is a publication that does credit to the ladies of the New Albany Female Seminary as well as to the city at large, and should receive the hearty encouragement and support of the community. It is published at seven ty-five cents a year.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING -On Wednesday morning, about one o'clock, the dry goods and grocery y enoampment, and some pic-nics. We hope it which entirely destroyed the house and its contents, which were valued at $3,000. The fire was soon communicated to an adjoining huilding, helonging to Mr. R. J. We understand that in Cincinnati, Pitts nurgh, Wheeling, St. Louis, and other cickly cities, mmense numbers of small white gnats have made their appearance lately. They are similar to those that appeared in 1983, just before the cholera broke out. Some people think they por tend a sickly season, though we hope all such prophecies will prove false. We advise all per sons desiring to live in a healthy place, to emigrate, forthwith, to Louisville, where the doctors are starving. We have no gnats here; no, noue terday, and were agreeably disappointed in the appearance of the crops. The corn is small, but it stands well, and is clean and well worked, is o good color, healthy, and thrifty. The wheat and barley look well; some of the latter is harvested, in fine condition. The oats seem short, but, with seasonable weather, will make a fair crop. The potatoes look well, many fields in bloom, and apparently very thrifty. Everything indicates a most ahundant crop this year, with favorable communication from Harry Watkins, an actor well known in this city, assigning some pretly strong reasons for desiring a divorce from his wife. He charged her with slight imprudencies of conduct. The courts, however, didn't think that Watkins had sufficient cause for divorce, and so decided. This "unfortunate" decision has brought Mr. Watkins out in a card, in which he seeks to justify himself for the course he has pursued towards his wife.

WIG AND HAIR MANUFACTORY .- As will be observed by an advertisement, Mr. E. D. Nicholas, of 83 Fourth street, has disposed of his wig and ornamental hair manufactory establishment to Mr. N Nicholas, a citizen of twenty-five years standing. The new proprietor intends to get up all work of this description in the very best style, and all at reasonable rates. Country merchants can purchase articles at eastern rates. Or-

WHEAT .- We conversed yesterdsy with a large farmer from Shelhy county, who informed us that his wheat crop this year bids fair to he the hest he ever harvested. He says he has not for twenty years had so good a crop on his lands. From recent conversations with many farmers from different sections of the country, we are sstisfied not only that the wheat is uninjured by the late frost, but that the crop generally, will be this city. "Wyandotte," the volume for the presa most abundant and excellent one.

The country is suffering seriously for want of rain. The oat crop will not he more than one-half of an average, while grass and hay are hut little, if any better. Even the blackberry crop, our great staple and stand by, will fall far short of the accustomed yield.

The frost of Saturday and Sunday last which committed such sad havor with fruits and vegetation in those States North of the Obio, was quite general in Kentucky, hnt fortunately was so light as to do no material damage.

OPPOSITION CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

ROBERT MALLORY NOMINATED. The Opposition Convention of the Seventh Conressional District of Kentucky, assembled at Lagrange, June 9, 1859, to nominate a candidate for Congress in lieu of Hon. Humphrey Marshall, who declined the nomination of a previous conven-

There were present over two hundred delegates rom Shelhy, Henry, Oldham and Jefferson counties, and from the different wards of the city of

At 11 o'clock, A. M., Hon Wm. F. Bnllock called the convention to order, and, on his motion, Jss. T. Crutchfield, Esq., of Oldham county, was appointed Chairman, and John T. Bullard, Esq., of Shelby county, Secretary. On motion of Thomas Todd, Esq, of Shelhy, a ommittee, consisting of Thos. Todd, of Shelhy, S. A. Foss, of Jefferson, James Goslee, of Henry, F. Evans, of Oldham, W. F. Bullock, Henry C. Morton and Thomas Shanks, of Louisville, were appointed to recommend the names of suitable ersons for permanent officers of the Convention, who reported the following:

President-Charles Ripley, Esq., of Louisville. Vice Presidents-Henry Bohannon, of Shelby, Wm. Voorbeis, of Henry, John Harrison, of Jefferson, Jas S. Crutchfield, of Oldham, and Thos. H. Crawford, of Louisville. Secretaries -T. O. Shackelford, of Shelby, Thos. dodman, of Henry, and J. M. Vaughan, of Lou-

The report was approved and the persons amed unanimously declared officers of the Convention. Mr. Ripley, on taking the chair, made a brief address, congratulating the Convention on the high position and firm stand the District had always maintained, and recommending harmony and unanimity among the friends of the different aspirants.

Wm. S. Helm, of Shelby, moved that, as the hasis in voting in this Convention, one vote he allowed for each one hundred votes cast for Fillmore at the last Presidential election, in the different counties of the District.

Dr. John Wheeler, of Henry, moved, as a substitute, that one vote he allowed for each one nundred of all the votes cast in each county in the District, and in the city of Louisville, as the he District, and in the city of Louisville, as the pasis for voting in this Convention. After considerable discussion, in which Judge Bullock and M aj. Hencock, of Louisville, and Mr.

ilelm, of Shelby, and others participated, the substitute was adopted. Some time was speut in receiving and enrolling the names of the different delegates, and in completing the organization of the Convention. The following nominations for candidates for Congress were then made, viz: Robert Mallory, of Oldham. Caleb W. Logan, of Louisville. William C. Bullock, of Shelby. George D. Prentice, of Louisville. Hamilton Pope, of Louisville.

Blanton Duncan, of Louisville. E. S. Craig, of Jefferson. A letter was read from Mr. Prentice, declining he nomination, and the names of Messrs. Logan, ope, Duncan, and Craig were withdrawn, and lessrs. Mallory and Bullock were voted for by the Couvention. On the first ballot Mr. Rohert Mallory, of Oldham, was nominated the Opposition candidate for Congress in the Seventh District by the following vote, viz:

FOR MR. MALLORY.
City of Louisville
Jefferson county
Henry county
Oldham county 9 "
Total
FOR MR. BULLLOCK.
City of Louisville
Shelby county
Henry county 8 "

The Convention then, by acclamation, declared Robert Mallory, Esq., of Oldham county, the Op position candidate for Congress, of the Seventh Congressional District of Kentucky. A committee was appointed who waited on Mr.

Mallory, and informed him of his nomination, and invited him to visit the Convention, which he did, and returned thanks for the honor of the nomina tion in a brief speech. He endorsed the Opposi tion platform adopted at the Convention in Louis. ville, on 22d February, 1859. The appearance and emarks of Mr. Mallory were received with great

Hon. S. S. Nicholas, of Louisville, was then called for. He appeared on the stand, and made a brief speech, and urged the importance of unanimity in support of the nominees of the Convention. Judge Nicholas was repeatedly interrupted with cheers, during the progress of his speech, and took his seat amid loud and continued plaudits. He was followed by Wm. S. Helm, Esq., who pledged the undivided support of the Opposition party of Shelhy county, for Mr. Malory, and said that that county would give Mr. Mallory a larger majority than she had formerly given Col. Marshall. Mr. Helm's pledge was fully endorsed by the large delegation present from Shelby county.

And thus ended the second grand pow-wow o the Opposition in the Seventh Congressional District this year. We don't know whether Mallory is a Know Nothing, American, or Opposition nomination, but judging from the speech of the Hon. S. S. Nicholas in the Couvention, and the defeat of Bullock, we suppose that he is a Sam-Nicholasite, and that he is not a Comer down-to-a-level-with-the-people. As Mr. Mallory helped to slaughter Henry Clay in the National Whig Convention, which nominated General Taylor in 1848, we suppose that some of the Clay Whigs now in the ranks of the Opposition will help the Democracy to slaughter him. This murder of Henry Clay was the hegiuning of Mr. Mallory's political record, and we doubt not that it will be the fixed opinion of many Clay Whigs that this record should end in the murder of Mr. Mallory in August next. The Frankfort Yeoman, in its last issue, in orms the world and the rest of mankind, that it has recently secured an additional subscriber .-Will the manhood of that redoubtsble paper inform the Democracy whether the new subscription was upon the Yeoman's non-intervention or protection platform? We don't mean to ask a hard question, but we suppose that the Yeoman's books will show the date of the subscription, and that its files will determine the time of its notorions lesp from non-intervention to pretection.

THE ECROPEAN CIRCUS. - Spalding & Rogers' colection of foreign riders, gymnasts and acrohats, have been exciting a sensation in Cincinnati this week, second only to the opera, and M'lle Loyale especially has raised a furor decidedly Piccolominish. As they make their debut in Louisville to-night, on hoard the Floating Palace, at the foot of Third street, we shall have an opportunity of seeing what cause there is for all this excitement. The Cincinnati Enquirer, in the course of a highly laudatory critique, learnedly discourses thus: Habitual circus goers are considerably exercised about Spalding & Rogers' speculation of importing a whole circus from across the Atlantic, and the curiosity pervades even that portion of the community who are not blased with circusea to see how munity who are not blased with circuses to see how a genuine European circus compares with the Native American article. We often see a single, or may he two, trans-Atlantio performera here, usually paraded as stars, no matter what their position at home, hut we helieve this is the first attempt to transplant a whole company of exotic circus riders.

In some particulars, each side of the ocean explain the department of the ring. American cels in the department of the ring. American male riders are now, and always have been, the best in Europe. The equestriennes, however, are universally ahead of ours. Madame Macarte, Madame Tourniaire, and all we have hitherto seen Madame Tourniaire, and all we have hitherto seen here, are not fair specimens of the hest lady riders. M'lle Eloda Leysle, the principal feature of the troupe now under consideration, has for three years been the acknowledged "Queen of the Circle" in Europe, so that we will have an opportunity of seeing the genuine article. She is said even to outstrip all male riders. In gymnastica, calisthenics, equilibria and finished poses, European circuses are always in advance of ours, so that in this department we may prepare ourselves to enjoy some-

THE CROPS .- Our exchanges furnish conflicting eports of the growing crops. In many sections of the State the oats and wheat are said to be greatly damaged by rust, and the army worm is doing great injury to the meadows. ANOTHER ACCIDENT .- John Bedford, a citizen of this county, living in the vicinity of Prewitt's Knoh, came to his death on Saturday last, by falling from a tree. He was hunting, and had climbed a tree for the purpose of driving some squirrels out of their hole, when the limb upon which he was standing broke, precipitating him to the ground—a distance of some twenty-five or thirty feet. He was picked up insensible, and conveyed home, where he died in about two ours, suffering great psin. - Glasgow Free Press

The accoud reports from the country, afe to conclude that people were more acaret than hurt by the frost. That much injury has been done, is not to be questioned, but, notwith-standing, the prospects for very large crops are good, having been much improved by rains which have fallen within the last forty eight hours from several points we learn that the frost killed he fly, which was injuring the wheat, hut caused little damage to the latter. As regards corn, in will be all right again in a week or two, and wit lavorable weather, hereafter, the largest crop ever grown in the West may be calculated upon, with entire sufety .- Cin. An Exciting Discussion at Paris, Ky. [Correspondence of the Lonisville Courier.]

Paris, Ky., June 7, 1859. Editors Louisville Courier: You have not yet ad an account of the discussion at this place on Thursday last by the candidates for Congress. It being the first meeting of their regular appointments, there was a great crowd of eager list-ners in attendance. The debate was, at times, ners in attendance. The debate was, at times, most inter-sely interesting and exciting. A general fight between Trabue on one aide and Harla-, Tom Green and the Opposition on the other, came near being enacted in the court room, the lie, and it is false, being given by the latter paties. But to the discussion, in regular order. Harlan led off with the first speech, such as is characteristic of his party. He was intensely in favor of Americans, no protection to slave property, for Cuba if and if—against the slien feature of the Homestead hill, wanted Congress to keep out foreign paupers, and against the corruptions of the Democracy, &c., &c. Trabue followed Harlan, and, for the first time in his life, did not pull off his coator cravat. Of coarse, he was for pull off his coat or cravat. Of course, he was for his old Native Americanism. He denounced the frankfort Clique with great hitterness. They, the hypocritical friends of Clay, nominated Alex Marshall, the most infamous enemy Clay ever had over, himself. The clique also proved false to Shanklin, and after being committed to him, worked secretly for Harlan. Whilst Breckinridge and Clay had the district, they wanted him (Trabush) to the house the property of the state of the s ue) to run, but backed out when they the they had a show to elect their own man. He say no man can go as far for slavery as he. When he was announced as for Lecompton, they said that would not do, but they were as silent as church mouses since Bell came out for it. And, now, said he, I will pay my respects to Capt. Simms and the Frankfort Clique No. 2. They nominated Capt. Simms because it was said he was worth $70,000, was a batchelor of leisure and vast ambition, and would die before he would autfer defeat.

Capt. Simms followed Trabue, and gained a complete triumph over his opponents. He reviewed the slavery question from its first agitation; showed the position of parties; that in every single instance, the South was indebted to the single instance, the South was indebted to the Northrin Democracy for every right she ever obtained. He showed how the question of non interference by Congress, either to legislate slavery in or out of a Territory, was adopted.—He took hold and decided ground in favor of Congressional protect on to slavery in the Territories when necessary, and when it was demonstrated that the South could not get justice in the Union, he was for her standing by her just rights to the bitter end. In reply to Harlan, he said, that he would vote for a law t, protect the slave owner in his rights, if the Territorial Legislature failed to do so, and would vote to punish a negro stealer, and help to hang him as high as a negro stealer, and help to hang him as high as Haman. He also declared he would not vote for Judge Douglas for President, if nominated, standing on his Freeport speech doctrine. He asked Mr. Harlan if he would support Mr. Crittenden; he said he would. Then, said Capt. Simms, you are for a man who declares that a Black Re unblinant Converse can can be the said be would. Black Republican Congress can cut the whole South out of all participation in the Territories. He was opposed to any man who admitted the power of any authority to keep the South out o per just rights in the public domain.

Capt. Summs demonstrated the utter absurdity of this Southern Opposition pretending to stand by Southern rights. They decided the justness of the Dred Scott decision. Mr. Green, who stood nefore him, declared in his paper that the Black Republican Judges decision was the clearest and most logical. Mr Green denied it. Capt S mms said, I speak by the record, and am not to be interrupted. Judges Nicholas and Robertson, who framed the famous indictment against the Democracy at Louisville, gives an Abolition Congress the right to the South out of any participation in common Territory of the whole nation. Simms refuted, with masterly ability, the charge of corruption against the Administration. Harlan relied principally upon showing how the Govern ment paid from four to twelve times as much for collecting the revenue, at certain points, as the whole amount collected. Capt. Simms said the same case existed under Mr. Fillmore's administration, and read from the record and explained that it was bound to be done to keep out smugglers; and now, genllemen, said be, this is the way an intelligent and increase is insulated to prove giers; and now, gentiemen, said be, this is the way an intelligent audience is insulted to prove such charges. The effect against Harlan was truly electric. Capt. Simms took bold ground in favor of acquiring Cuha; was for giving the President $30,000,000 to do so. He was not like Harlan, professedly for acquiring, but against all measures that could be suggested for obtaining it. He was for it because it would add to the power of the South, and because it was necessary such as recommended by the President at present

Capt. Simms had shown that the Democrats in Congress uniformly voted against all extravagance, and the Brack Republicans for it. Mr. Harlan thought he would make something by showing that the bills did not pass, but that id not relieve the Opposition from the charge of favoring extravagance.

Mr. Trabue, in his reply, stated that he under stood Mr. G een to say, at Lexington, that he had been working to secure Harlan's election from the first. Mr. Green said what he had said, and Frabue took his word, but differed with him .-Mr. Green made no apology for the lie he gave, as we heard.

Trabus said Geo. Craddock had told him that

Trabus said Geo. addock had told him that

Mr. Harlan was co-omitted to Snanklin, but as Mr. Harlan utterly denied it, he had to take his word for it. It appeared to us that Mr. Harlan and Mr. Green ought to have given more apology for their rough treatment. The crowd, who were disinterested in the fight, sympathized with Mr. Trabue, as he was alone, and it tooked like a preconcerted effort to overrun or disgrace him; as he had made the same charges at George.own without its producing such a tiss. ithout its producing such a fuss.

Capt Simms, to his rejoider, said his opponents had gotten up quite an interesting scene to the house, and he suppose it well cough, if they could not interest the audience otherwise. He ped all would move on presently hereafter. He replied to some of Mr. Harlan's arguments and closed by aliuting to this being the county of his residence, and that, next to his election, he desired a flattering vote from his own county. The Democracy here were highly delighted with Capt Simms' effort, and they will roll up for him such a vote as has not been given in this county to a Demoorat for a quarter of a cen-tury. Capt. Simms has been a candidate for the Legislature twice in this county, and atways run far ahead of his ticket. Bourbon then elected ar anead of his ticket. Bourcoon than elected two members of the Legislature, and auch men as Britus Clay, F. Kenoedy, and Capt. J. While in the City of Mexico, they presented him with a magnifi-cent sword, costing over five hundred dollars. At great pecuniary expense and trouble to himself, he brought home with him the dead of his company from Mexico. [Spe-lal Dispatches to the Clocinnati Commercial] NORMOUS FRAUDS ON THE GOVERNMENT IN THE COUNTARFEITING AND WASHING OF POSTOFFICE

New York, June 8.—The Herald contains a dispatch dated Washington, June 7. which attact that a recent investigation into the affairs of the Postoffice has led to the belief that that department of Gevernment loses one million of dollars a year by the use of counterfeit and re-washed postage stamps. It is believed that a year by the use of counterfeit and re-washed postage stamps. It is believed that there are two classes of persons engaged in this nefamous business, one of which manufactures either from engraved or photographed plates and sells new postage stamps, and another that gathers those which have been used, from waste paper collections, and, by means of soid, washes of the post-office atoms which is nut on them when they are office stamp which is put on them when they pass through the office, under the present postal system. There is no means of guarding against the first named evil, for the manufacture of postage stamps is so simple that one man can make his plate and produce thousands of sheets without the aid of a single person. To dispose of them be has only to come into collision with some of the postmasters or their clerks, of which there are more than 50,000 in clerks, of which there are nore than 50.000 in all throughout the country, and the constant loss, es of money in passing through the mails does not give a high standard of honesty among them. All of them are entrusted with the sale of stamps, and no check can be kept noon them, for there is no possibility of ascertaining how many stamps are in the hands of the people. When letters are passed the clerks have no time to scru-fuct the stamp on them, and they are rapidly de-faced with black stamps. As the letters, with the ced with black stamps. As the letters, with the defaced stamps on them, pass again into the bands of the people, the department can form no posi-tive idea to what extent the fraudulent stamps are used. The same difficulty of detection attends the rewashed stamps, but they are supposed to be naed to a less extent than the constericts, on account of the greater facilities for aelling the latcount of the greater facilities for aeiling the lat-ter. Efforts have been made, both in this coun-try and in England, where the same difficulty is encountered, to obtain an indelible ink for the purpose of defacing used atamps, but without success; and the nefficiency of our po-lice system for preventing the operations of coun-terfeiters, leaves the mann acturer of surreputious notates atamps to labor with impositions. postage atamps to labor with impunity. It is the opinion of persons well versed in the affairs of he Postoffice Department here, that these franda have an intimate connection with deficiency in its revenues, and could the Postmaster General devise some means to stop them, the Department would soon become self-austaining. The only possible manner of doing it, seems to be to abolipossible manner of doing it, seems to be to abolish entirely the use of postage stamps, and resort

Ohio Politics - Black Republican Programme The proceedings of the recent Black Republi-

ty in the contest of 1860. The first action of the Convention, and the legitimate result of the party policy of the Repub. cans, was the repudiation of Judge Swan for his decision in the Oberlin rescue case, and the nomination in his stead of Judge Gholson, of Cincinnati. This showed most unmistakehly the animus of the Convention, or rather the pressure of the under-current of public sentiment in Northern Ohio, and was a decided triumph of the "Rugged Issue" branch of the party led by Giddings and Wade, over the more conservative element led by Corwin and Camphell. Judge Swan, although a consistent Black Republican, could not fi!! the demands of that party; could not in the honest performance of his duty disregard all judicial pre cedents, and even the Federal Constitution, and obey the hebests of Northern fanalicism; and for that reason he was immolated-immolated for

laws of his country boldly, fearlessly, and hon-

The action of the Ohio Black Republicans demonstrates most conclusively that it is their pre-determined object to make the Judiciary subservient to party purposes. Indeed, it is boldly proclaimed that one of the great designs of the party is the complete re-organization of the Supreme Court, for having dared to decide that the property of the citizen of Kentucky and the citien of Obio was on a footing of precise equality, and entitled to an equal protection in the Territories of the United States. The first object is to make the Courts in the Northern States antislavery, producing continual conflicts with the Federal Judiciary, and rendering the fugitive alave law valueless to the people of the South, and when public sentiment in the North is sufficiently prepared, to make war upon the Supreme Court, and establish in its place a National anti-

In spite of the resolves of county and State Conventions, the conflict of sections must come, and the next few years will determine whether the Union can exist with diverse and antagonistic eystems of labor. The issue must arise, and it is the past neuber of window or actions, and it is the part neither of wisdom or statesmanship to jush it further into the future.

We, however, have no serious apprehensions o the dismemberment of the Union. We feel fully assured that the people of the North, should the South assume a bold and defiant attitude, will shrink from carrying out their sectional doctrines. They dare not attempt to repeal the fugitive slave law; they dare not attempt to remodel the Supreme Court; they dare not attempt to degrade the South in the Union, or to deny to its citizens full equality in the enjoyment of their properly in the common Territories of all the States.

Northern fanatics will shrink from its sec tional dogmas, when they learn that the South alike despises and defies their threats. They can talk as much as they please about doing away with the Supreme Court and fugitive slave law; out think they that the South will aubmit? Do they magine, because we have some doughfaces, and of the South does not beat loy al to its own institution and its own rights.

The North has too great a pecuniary interest in the continuance of the l'nion, to imperil its existence, by daring to carry out the dogmas of Abolition demagogues. They want Union in which, however, to degrade the South; ont such a Union can never exist. They may as

The only way, however, for the South to main in its independence in the Union is boldly to demand all its constitutional rights. It is a part of the national compact; and all who are nawilof the national compact; and all who are nowilsey came to her death, but a statement of any of them might be premature, and would add nothing to the importance of the details. ing to recognise our complete equality in the support. If the demagogue plea that the North will not grant us our rights is to obtain, the South may as well "knock under" and become the unmarmuring subject of Northern despotism. But failed heretofore? Has not the South ruled the probably that sermon would never have been country and maintained its rights, in defiance of preached, for, in fact Paul Morphy beat the devi Northern Abolitionism and Southern dough-facesm? We make this atatement with no feeling of peculiar exultation or triumph, but because it is a fact, d sclosed by the history of the country.

Let timid men and delicate politicians attemp to make a bugaboo of the North. The South can lose nothing. Our institutions do not depend for their existence on Northern fanatics. The Scuth eases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsy, will never be a suppliant for its rights, but when lowing Certificate of a cure of overtwenty years' standshe has Constitutional rights, they must be pro-tes a demoralized political sentiment, something has been, and will prohably atill continue to be done, to injure the rights of the people of the South.

The State of Ohio lies side by side to Kentneky. Its principal city derives much of its support from Kentucky, and no where in the Union is there more fanaticism, more disregard of Constitutional obligations, more pandering to the depraved spirit of Abolitionism, than in the State of Ohio. But how can anything better be expected, when men who should teach sound political doctrines—when even Democrats give in to the Abolition in another more save and home to be departed to the deprayed spirit of Abolitionism, than in the State of Ohio. But how can anything better be expected, when men who should teach sound political doctrines—when even Democrats give in to the Abolition in another more save and to the departed of t when even Democrats give in to the Abolition pressure, and haven't sufficient "back-bone" to tand by the Constitutional rights of their Southern brethren; and when the leading Democratic organ in the State is advocating heresies as obnoxious to the people of the South as Abolitionism in its most abhorrent form?

As yet, the judiciary of Ohio has been true to the obligations of duty and the Federal Constitut'on. Men have been found even in the Black Republican ranks, like Judge Swan, who can rise above all party trammels, and can do justice even to the South. May we not hope that the people of Ohio will panse in their mad sectional areer-that they will deliberate before they cut themselves entirely loose from the South, and before their fanatical acts shall drive the Southern States to adopt in self-preservation, retaliatory near Bay Ridge was yesterday identified as that of Mrs. Halsey, late of No. 111 West Twelfth street, better known to the public under her professional name of Fanny Deane, an actress of some note, who played about two years since at Wallack's Theater. Her husband was arresied, vectored a popular and taken by Deputy Separates. vesterday morning, and taken by Deputy-Seper-intendent Carpenter to Bay Ridge, where he identified the deceased as his wife. Upon seeing her corpse he manifested considerable emotion, burying his face in his hands. The deceased was eighteen years of age, the mother of two children, and a weman of full, rohust habit. Her bushand and a weman of full, rounds made. Her bushand is thirty-five years of age, an Englishman by birth, and has filled the position of actor in subordinate parts. It is said that on Wednesday last he discovered his wife in the act of writing a letter of sessionation to a well-known contract of Peach lyn, with whom she is reported to have been on terma of criminal intimacy. An explosion fol-lowed, and Mrs. Halsey made a clean breast of the whole affair, handing over the letters which she received from her paramour. They were ad-dressed to "Mrs. Fanny Howard," and consisted of appointments to meet at Thompson's saloon and other places. One letter states that the writer was about to leave town, and that he was head expensive mistress, exacting sums of $75 or $100 at a time from her alleged lover. What she did with the money does not appear, except in the shape of rumor, to which we decline to give curstant in selling his large. Mr. Halsey handed the Deputy-S tendent or Police a letter purporting to have been written by his wife to her lover, which he (her hushand) was to forward, in which she says that her husband had discovered their intimacy, and she had told him everything, and promised him not to write or speak to her lover again.

Mrs. Halsey's mother says that when her sonin-law went out on Wednesday, after discovering his wife's guilt, and hecoming reconciled to her, he said that he would give her a great surprise before night; but he did not return until 11½ o'clock, P. At the time of her death, Mrs. Fanny Deane Halsey was the mother of two healthy children, the one about fourteen months, and the other obout six weeks old.

Henr Halsey was born in London, England and is said to be about thirty-eight years of age. His appearance is merely that of a man borne down by perplexing cares. He is exceedingly courteous and gentlemanly. His father is represented as being a very wealthy officer of the British army, who, owing to the dissipation of his son at home, some four years ago, ahandoned him to the world. After coming to this side of the Atlantic, Henry failed to improve his ways His father, however, it appears, has been in the habit of aending him periodical amounts of money, which aided somewhat in supporting Mr.

The result of their acquaintance was daring in his judicial capacity to interpret the clandestine marriage. Soon after, however, April (25, 1857,) they were duly married at the Church of the Ascension, in Fifth Avenue, hy

Mr. Halsey is represented as having been, for a long time, so dissipated as to preclude proper attentions to his wife. Frequently he would stay out all night at gambling saloons and other places of a like character. On Tuesday night—the night previous to the departure of his wife from her home-he was out until an early hour on the fol-lowing morning. On Wednesday forenoon Mr. Halsey discovered his wife in the act of writing a letter which was addressed to a gentleman in Brooklyn, who, it seems, was a "friendly lover." A scene then took place which can he better imagined than described. The result was of the same character as that memorable one in the case of Mrs. Sickles' confession in reference to Key, yet fresh in the minds of our readers. Mrs. Fan ny Deane Halsey remained seated in a great agitation, and wrote, after her husband's dictation, a confession of her whole corresp ence and connection with the gentleman afore-said. The document being finished, Mr. Halsey directed his wife to pen a letter to the gentleme referred to, informing him of the fact that the whole affair had heen discovered, and that the acquaintance must cease forthwith. This document he said he would convey himself to the gen-tleman, Mr. Henry S. Wells, contractor for the water works of Brooklyn.

About the same time Mr Halsey left for the purpose of conveying to Mr. Wells the epistle which was to inform him of the result of the husband's discovery, and the news that they should never meet again. It however, that Mr. Italsey still remains in possession of the letter. He has several other letters, which he says Fanny had received from Mr. Wells. One of these is signed "Harry," and another is without any signature whatever.

It is represented that Mr. Halsey possessed great influence over the general conduct of his wife, and it is believed that as he was very much in want of funds with which to supply the gambing-table, he induced her to cultivate an acuaintance with Mr. Wells, with a view to securing money. She said she placed full dependence on the patriotism of the deputies and upon the sup-port of the entire nation, which during the ab-sence of the chosen chief would never be found wanting to a woman and her child. The speech was loudly cheered.

The overthrow the Austrian power is Hungary. The new King of Naples, Francis I, had been acknowl-edged by telegraph by nearly all the Powers, and the army had sworn its allegiance.

To tell you that I have paid two millions of dollars to make this truth knownn, is of itself an astounding fact; and never was a truer word spoken. And what is the result? Why that about three million persons in the United States partially believe in their efficacy and have a general idea of the benefits to be de rived from purgation in sickness. But what a field for phlianthrophy! What millions remain to be converted! And let me say that this knowledge is second only to Christianity in the benefits it is capable of conferring on mankind. Let not medical men persuade you that Brandreth's Pills are a quack remely. It is no such thing. What I sell you for two sbillings these men could not furnish for a dollar. My herbs and extracts are all prepared in my own laboretory, where a steam engine of one hundred and forty horse power is employed exclusively for this purpose, beslies an extensive water power. In using these pills you risk noth ng, for they have been used by millions; so that should you feel disposed to take a sly dose, you will be able certainly to live through the operation; end you may heve the lough on your side when the doctor tells you that he hit your case exactly with that last medicine. The Rea River had arrived at Vicksburg From P on the assut, having in tow the pile driver which had ocen trying to stop the crevasse at that place for two weeks. They have given it up and the boat will return to New Orleans.

A gentleman writing from Milliken's Bend on the 51st says: "The water is passing off and we expect to make a half coop or more."

The Oakland — Owensholto, Evansville and Handrash Packet. — We made brief mention the other day, that our young friend, Capt. John H Smorzke, was fitting up and repairing the neat packet Oakland, for the summer campaign in the Ohio river. She is a good hoat and a fast one, and the lightest Jraugust of any on the track, and we learn that she is to be along the property of the state of the stat we learn that she is to be placed permanently in the trade between this point and Henderson. The Oakland will commance her trips in the The Odeland will commonce her trips in the Louisville, Owenshoro, Evansville and Henderson Trade on Tuesday next, the 14th, and will make two trips per week, leaving this port every Tuesday and Friday, the original days of the first packets in the trade, the Fawn and the Rainbow. Capt. Smorzka is a young man well known, and very p pular in the trade. The clerk is Mack Huston, who is universally regarded as one of the best or most correct clerks on the river, and the greatest favorite ever in the trade.

The LaCrosse has laid up at Steuben The June rise along the Ohio is likely to prove a failure this year, or only a very small rise at best, though we hope for more. By the following, from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday, it appears that there is an abundance of water out West:

water out West:

The annual mountain rise from the Missouri river will be upon as in a few days. The steamer Emigrant left Fert standall on Friday morning, June 24, and her officers report the river rising vary rapidly at the Fort. It had swelled five feet when they left, and they passed the rise near Council Bluffs on their return. The probable extent of the swell could not be ascertained, but it is thought that it will not exceed five or six feet at this point. The Emigrant was obliged to wait for the rise as a pointsixty miles below Randall, and the officers of the beat report the swell very rapid. The fail of the river here has already been checked by the upper sessissisply rise, which is very heavy between St. Paul and Dubuque.

The Baltic, instead of returning to New Orleans yesterday, as advertised, has been laid up and retired for the season. ANOTHER STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT. - We copy the following from the Mobile Register of the Sd. The boat was built at Pittshurgh:

Tenerday, while the steamer Wm. Bagaley was opposite the lower fleet, on her trip from New Orleans to Mobile, she blew out her larboard cylinder head. Mr. N. Summerville, the second engineer, was blown up on the wood pile, and rad his collar bone broken, his skull fractured and was badly scalede. The boat came up to the city on one wheel. Mr. Summerville was carried to the Infirmary of Drs. Ross and Ketchum in a very critical condition.

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and mest Convenient Artificial Light in the World.

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety and simplicity, far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas fiame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixtures is so simple that it is not liable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burnt in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odor while burning, aa, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect oombustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it in e-instant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no filekering or unsteadiness in the fiame. The Vesper Gas light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit sill tastes, from the plain slogic light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chandelier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The as is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the chap single light burner to the expensive chandelier, are miniature gas works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not exceed the cost of ordinary gas fixtures of similar styles and ornamentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application.
